

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Motion scheduled to be made in Federal Court here today to set date of trial of Jack Johnson, following ruling of Supreme Court that he would have to stand trial on charge of violating Mann white slave act. Instructions issued by U. S. District Attorney J. H. Wilkerson to have Johnson, who is out on bond, kept under close watch.

Judge Jesse Baldwin, Circuit Court, will probably order a recount of entire vote of county for three leading candidates for state's attorney.

James Malone, just out of Leavenworth prison, and Thomas Clark, alias Kelly, arrested. Police expect to connect them with the $1,200 safeblowing and $75,000 fire of store of Moeller Bros., 3014-22 Lincoln av., Friday.

Anna Whelan, 12, 335 N. Washtenaw av., bitten by dog. Severely wounded. Dog arrested.

Patrolman Michael Hurley found beggar with same name as he had. Arrested him, charged with begging. Said all the Hurleys he knew worked.

Co-operation between firebugs and members of wholesale houses and manufacturing concerns has been discovered by Ass't State's Att'y Frank Johnson, conductor of the investigation of the "arson trust."

Nego attacked and robbed Mrs. S. Timlin, 121 N. Austin av., in the doorway of her home. Got $13.

Chas. Jenner, Canton, O., had his pocket picked of $220 by girl he had taken to dinner at hotel, 519 S. State st.

Robbers in flat of Miss Anna Regan, 705 La Salle av., got goods worth $100.

Holdups got $14 from Thos. O'Leary, bartender, 26th st. and Emerald av.

Grip containing valuable papers stolen from F. H. Adams, Milwaukee, when he stopped on Madison st. bridge to tie his shoe.

32 diphtheria and 33 scarlet fever cases reported today.

James Shea, bookkeeper, 4640 W. Polk st., suicide. Gun. Ill health.

Forecaster Cox says that tonight will be the coldest night so far this winter. Predicts several degrees below zero.

Burglars got through open window in home of W. C. Gillmore, 6314 Ellis av. Got jewelry worth $143.50.

Two men beat, bound and gagged N. Becker, 1628 Larrabee st., and then robbed him of $4.

Claud Curtinton, 36, switchman, Kensington, killed by Belt Line train.

Ed Miller, 55, inmate of Salvation Army lodging house, 669 S. State st., fell on icy sidewalk. County Hospital. Fractured skull.

Progressives or Bull Moosers cannot vote at forthcoming primary, according to decision of Board of Election Commissioners.

A. J. Martin, 6225 Kenmore av., and wife, severely hurt in runaway.

Mrs. K. M. Wilmer, 904 W.